Knowland Expects Veto of Farm Bill

Predicts Action Unless Measure Is Modified

Democrats Push Through Amendment To Lift Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland predicted after a White House conference today that President Eisenhower will veto the Senate passed farm bill unless it is "modified" by a Senate-House conference committee.

Knowland (R-Calif.) and other GOP legislative leaders discussed the farm bill with Mr. Eisenhower at their weekly legislative conference today. Senate Democrats meanwhile boasted that they had won a "back door" victory over the administration in the fight over high price supports in the farm measure.

Administration forces until Monday night had been successful in beating back Democratic efforts to replace flexible price supports with high rigid supports. But Democrats at the last minute pushed through an amendment designed to lift sharply the present support price floor of 75 per cent of parity for corn, cotton and wheat.

The Senate then went on to pass, 92-2, the catch-all farm bill that would increase farmers' election-year income by hundreds of millions of dollars. The bill now goes to the House, which may send it to a joint Senate-House conference committee for further rewriting.

Knowland said that "everyone, including the President," expressed hope at the White House meeting that the conference committee "may modify the bill."

"It is unworkable in its present form," said Knowland. "I don't see how, if the bill was left in its present form, the President could sign it."

Major provisions of the legislation call for mandatory participation by farmers in a $1,200,000,000 soil bank, modified flexible price supports, continuation of dual parity, an increase in dairy price supports, and two-price programs for rice and wheat.

House Gets It Now

The measure now goes to the House which last year approved

Stevenson and Kefauver Clash In Primary Test

Reports Indicate Heavy Vote Today In Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver clashed in their first head-on test of strength in today's Minnesota presidential primary.

Stevenson said he would be satisfied with 55 per cent of the vote and would consider a 60 per cent vote decisive. Kefauver predicted he would get more than 30 per cent of the vote and might score a major upset.

It is the first time the two rivals of the Democratic presidential nomination have met in a primary, although Kefauver scored an impressive victory over a slate of delegates favorable to Stevenson in New Hampshire last week.

Heavy Turnout Expected

A heavy turnout of between 450,000 and 525,000 Democrats is expected to vote between 8 a. m. and 9 p. m. EST today. No major trend in the returns is expected until late tonight.

Reports from scattered parts of the state indicated that about one-third more voters had turned out by mid-morning than by the same time in 1952. Polling booths reported the turnout as "very good."

The weather was mild, but cloudy, throughout the state, strengthening hopes for a big vote.

Republicans hoped for a hefty vote of confidence for President Eisenhower on the GOP side of the primary. He is running against the token opposition of a slate of delegates pledged to Sen. William F. Knowland of California. Knowland has said he would have withdrawn his name after the President entered the race if Minnesota law permitted.

GOP leaders do not expect a repetition of New Hampshire write-in vote for Vice President Richard M. Nixon. A Nixon write-in would either not be counted or would invalidate the ballot, they said.

The Democratic battle for delegates appeared to put Stevenson more on the spot than it did Kefauver.

Political observers in Washington have said that if Stevenson falters in Minnesota, Democrats will start looking around for dark horse candidates. It would also, of course, be a substantial boost to Kefauver's candidacy.

Former Prisoner Of Reds To Speak To Dinner Club

Richard Applegate, war correspondent who was held prisoner 18 months by the Chinese Reds, seven months of which were in solitary confinement, will be the guest speaker of the Southern Illinois Dinner club Thursday evening. The dinner club meeting will be held at the Kurto Country club and will begin promptly at 6:30 p. m.

Applegate, an NBC correspondent at the time of his capture and former Southeast Asia manager for the United Press with headquarters in Singapore, will discuss "What I Saw in Red China."

It is a rare opportunity for any audience to hear first hand a story of what the Red Chinese are doing and what lies behind the tactics they employ. The dinner club feels it is fortunate in having Applegate as guest speaker. The 43 year old newspaper and radio correspondent touches also on the Formosa situation, describing the efforts that will be made by the Communists to obtain bases, and giving his opinions on what the Navy will do to stop them.

Reservations for the dinner meeting should be made by Thursday noon with Rees Turner, secretary of the dinner club.

Pledges State Will Help to Boost Economy

Governor Addresses Community Leaders At Carbondale Meeting

Declaring that it means a great deal to the entire state for southern Illinois to be prosperous, Gov. William G. Stratton last night told area community leaders that the state of Illinois is going to help in every way it can to improve the region.

Gov. Stratton made his remarks after representatives from three dozen communities revealed the assets of their towns to members of the advisory board of the Illinois Division of Industrial Planning and Development in a meeting at Shryock auditorium on the Southern Illinois university campus at Carbondale.

"The way you are approaching the problem, to my mind, assures that southern Illinois will continue to make progress and we will be able to say it has one of the finest developed industrial programs in the country," the governor declared. "In the past there has been a tendency to play up liabilities, but your reports show your assets and I'm convinced southern Illinois is a place where we should be as proud to live as any place in the United States."

He continued by stating that "you have put your best foot forward, and if you're going to make an attractive presentation of your communities to factories and workers, you must of necessity talk of assets and not dwell too much on liabilities and problems."

Gov. Stratton said the state was anxious to get this new approach and get a continuous program started to bring industry to the state of Illinois.

Speaking of the division of planning and development recently created, he said "it's for the whole state, but we're concentrating on southern Illinois now."

He said that the state cannot give direct grants to help the area except through public works, to help make the area more attractive. He told of the transportation system that has been built up, that outlays for state highway building was more than doubled during the past three years, that during the same period the amount spent in southern Illinois recreation areas has increased 100 per cent over the past.

Praises SIU

He congratulated the work of Southern Illinois university in providing tangible benefits in industrial and community development, as well as in training the young people of southern Illinois.

Gov. Stratton implied in his remarks that he would try to do more in the future on developing the recreation facilities of southern Illinois.

Presiding at the hearing was A. K. Dallas of Peoria. Each community was given three minutes for its report.

Rules Mt. Vernon Cannot Condemn Water Utility

MT. VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Circuit Judge Ben W. Eovaldi Monday refused to dismiss an injunction prohibiting Mount Vernon's efforts to condemn and purchase the private water utility which serves the city.

Eovaldi ruled in effect that a city's powers of eminent domain do not include condemnation of a private water company's property.

Mount Vernon sought to condemn the property of Illinois Cities Water Co. and force sale of the property. Mount Vernon began condemnation proceedings against the utility after the firm applied for a rate increase amounting to about 100 per cent. The Illinois Commerce Commission later granted a 31 per cent rate hike, adding about $120,700 annually to consumers' water bills.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Harry Truman Faces Toughest Decision; Democrats Storm Their Anti-Labor Committee Chairman; Senate Faces Bitter Civil-Rights Battle.

WASHINGTON. — EX-President Truman has faced a lot of problems in his day, but he now faces the most difficult of all. Perhaps not since the Potsdam Conference has he been so worried.

After Potsdam, of course, he had to make the soul-tormenting decision to drop the atom bomb over Hiroshima. Later he had to make a decision regarding the Berlin airlift; another regarding the Marshall Plan; also aid to Greece and Turkey; plus the question of whether he should run again in 1948, when various Democratic leaders were trying to draft Eisenhower instead.

Harry rose to all these occasions with considerable promptitude and courage. He did not waver, did not appoint any of the commissions now so numerous in Washington.

Today, however, things are tougher. The most difficult decision of all time is at Harry's doorstep.

Margaret wants a small family wedding—only a few friends invited.

But Mrs. Truman wants to see her one and only child married the right way. She wants a big formal wedding. And Harry, torn between the two women he loves most, is in a quandary. He may even do what Eisenhower has done so many times—appoint a commission to decide.

Note — The New York Times staff never guessed it, but when Mr. Truman visited the editorial offices of that newspaper in January, he did so not because he was interested in the Times, but because he wanted to see the desk where his prospective son-in-law worked. He made Clifton Daniel, assistant foreign editor of the Times and Margaret's fiancé, take him down to the Times to show him where he worked.

BRISTLING DEMOCRATS

The hackles bristled on the necks of 11 Democratic congressmen at a closed-door, highly secret meeting in the office of Congressman Graham Barden, Democrat of New Bern, N. C.

Barden is the courtly Carolinian, chairman of the House Education and Labor committee who began life as a school teacher but is now bitterly opposed to aid to education. He has become one of the most reactionary members of Congress.

Barden is so reactionary that he has held not one meeting of his Education and Labor committee since Congress convened in January. Instead rules the committee with his own iron hand. Though he took time to arrange a nice committee junket to Puerto Rico, he will not take one hour to call a regular meeting.

What forced this impromptu meeting of Democrats only in Barden's private office, was the fact that he had hired a recognized labor-baiter, James M. Brewster, as counsel of the committee — a committee which is entrusted with liberalizing the Taft-Hartley act, broadening wage-hour laws and passing federal aid to education.

Yet without consulting a single member of the committee, Barden had hired a "labor adviser" who had spent 11 years working for the anti-labor National Association of Manufacturers and later formed his own anti-labor outfit, the Association of Industrial Mobilization.

SMOLDERING CIVIL RIGHTS

There's a lot smoldering behind Senate scenes in regard to civil rights. Senators are outwardly polite and cordial, but private moves are hatching that may erupt into serious fireworks.

For one thing, the old, unwritten coalition between southern Democrats and the Republicans has been severely strained, perhaps permanently disrupted.

By this coalition, northern Republicans voted with the South against civil rights. The southern senators in turn voted with the Republicans on conservative economic issues.

But the southern manifesto against the Supreme Court has put the Republicans on the spot. It has aroused so much resentment among northern voters that Republicans who would normally back the South on civil rights in the past, today won't dare to do so.

Take the case of Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, a northern Republican who normally would go along with his southern friends. Today this would be political suicide. The reverberations from the Negro population of Chicago would unseat him.

The whole uneasy issue is due to come to a head shortly when Sen. Tom Hennings, Missouri Democrat, moves for Judiciary committee approval of four civil-rights bills, including an anti-lynching bill and a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights with severe penalties for local officials who interfere with those rights.

UNBOTTLED BILLS

Ordinarily these bills would be bottled up in the Judiciary by the new Dixiecrat chairman, Senator Eastland of Mississippi. Eastland's tactics are to block the civil-rights bills until the end of the Senate session, then let his southern colleagues filibuster them to death.

Hennings, however, has other ideas. And with the Republicans on the spot, he can probably carry out those ideas. He figures he has eight votes—or a majority of the 15-man Judiciary committee. The votes are: Hennings, Mo.; Kefauver, Tenn.; O'Mahoney, Wyo.; Neely, W. Va.; all Democrats; and Wiley, Wis.; Langer, N. D.; Butler, Md., and Dirksen, Ill., Republicans.

Ordinarily Butler and Dirksen might not vote for civil rights but this time, it's different. The election year plus the southern manifesto have put them on the spot. Butler would lose most of Baltimore if he didn't vote for civil rights.

Senator Eastland has some tricks up his sleeve. He is trying to win O'Mahoney by promising him the chairmanship of the anti-monopoly committee, which according to seniority, goes to Kefauver. He will also pressure Kefauver by threatening to cut off money for his juvenile delinquency committee. However, neither is likely to succeed.

The civil-rights bills probably will get out of committee to the Senate floor where they'll touch off one of the bitterest battles of the congressional session. If they are reported out early enough, it will be very difficult for a filibuster to kill them.

MITCHELL, Ill. — The Presbyterian Church here burned down completely early today.

Lee Paul, chief of the Mitchell volunteer fire department, estimated the loss at $75,000. The frame building had recently been completely remodeled inside with new pews, arches and other furnishings.

And wonder how she died.

Miss Bette Joan Coffee, John Wayne Thomas Wed At Social Brethren Parsonage

In a simple but impressive double ring ceremony performed Friday, March 9, in the Social Brethren church parsonage, Miss Bette Joan Coffee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Coffee, 212 South Main, became the bride of John Wayne Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Thomas of Carrier Mills.

The church pastor, Rev. Earl Vaughn, officiated at the service which took place at seven o'clock in the evening.

The bride chose for her wedding a street length semi-formal dress of winter white tulle sprinkled with gold. The dress was fashioned with a strapless bodice and full skirt. A matching stole of illusion was secured to a small cuff of tulle and gold which slipped over one hand and draped over the shoulders. She wore a corsage of pink carnations intermingled with gold lace and carried a small white sible.

Mildred Goins, close friend of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a powder blue dressmaker suit and a pink carnation corsage. Lewis Dalton Jr., Carrier Mills, was best man.

Mrs. Coffee chose for her daughter's wedding a princess style dress of white wool with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black and gold dress and gold colored flowers.

The bride is a graduate of the Harrisburg Township high school with the class of 1952 and is presently employed at the Harrisburg Manufacturing company. The bridegroom was graduated from the Carrier Mills Community high school in 1952 and is in construction work.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas spent their honeymoon in Charleston, Ill., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Adams and children. They are now at home at 212 South Main in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Virginia L. Crane, wife of Lt. Col. George E. Crane, returned to her home at Ft. Eustis, Va., Friday, March 16, from Langley Air Force hospital where she underwent eye surgery. The operation is thought to be successful. Mrs. Crane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cummins of the Ingram Hill community.

Mrs. Ernest F. Brown left Sunday by train from St. Louis to visit her son, Davis E. Brown, and daughter, Mrs. Thomas E. Thompson, and other relatives and friends in the Los Angeles, Calif., area.

Malenkov Joins Anti-Stalin Move

LONDON — Georgi Malenkov, chosen successor of the late Josef Stalin, jumped on the anti-Stalin bandwagon Monday night.

The pudgy ex-premier made his first public comment on Party Secretary Nikita Khrushchev's bitter tirade against the former Soviet dictator.

Malenkov did not go as far as Khrushchev, but he pulled no punches and members of the British Labor Party who heard him speak said he gave the impression of disliking Stalin and that he was "obviously sincere."

He told the Socialist leaders of Parliament that the Soviets had cleaned up Russia, but there was no need to worry and that they had stopped the dictatorship and "all the wicked things."

Partially as a result of his remarks little attention was being given to a London press report that Malenkov might seek asylum in Britain because of the Khrushchev speech.

The tabloid Daily Sketch said "rumors" were circulating that Malenkov would never return to Russia because of fear caused by the anti-Stalin speech by Khrushchev.

But most British circles believed Malenkov had been sent here deliberately to prepare for the visit of Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

U. S. Supports French 'Get Tough' Policy in Algeria

PARIS — Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon announced full U. S. support today for France's emergency program to pacify terror-ridden Algeria.

Dillon told French diplomatic correspondents he wanted to clear up any possible misunderstanding about America's attitude toward the Algerian crisis.

"The United States stands solidly behind France in her search for a liberal and equitable solution of the problems in Algeria," he said.

The U. S. ambassador's statement aligned the Western Big Three with Premier Guy Mollet's "get tough" policy in Algeria. British support for the Mollet program was announced earlier this month.

Dayton Favored Over Xavier in NIT Tilt Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Tall, top-seeded Dayton is a prohibitive choice to wallop a Xavier team bereft of its best big man tonight in the quarter-finals of the National Invitation Basketball tournament, but third-seeded St. Joseph's is only even money against Seton Hall.

The quarter-finals got underway with one surprise Monday night as short, scrappy St. Francis of Brooklyn upset fourth-seeded Niagara, 74-72, in overtime.

Then second-seeded Louisville made the form sheet look a little better by using its great height and bench strength advantages to trounce defending champion Duquesne, 84-72, before a crowd of 6,250 at Madison Square Garden. Tonight's Dayton-Xavier winner will tackle St. Francis in the semi-finals on Thursday, and the St. Joseph's-Seton Hall winner will face Louisville. At this point, the experts still believe the seedings will hold true in that Dayton and Louisville will tangle in the final round on Saturday afternoon in a game to be nationally televised.

College, Pro Coaches Select All-U. S. High School Cage Team

By NEA Service
NEW YORK (NEA)—It's much more difficult to pick an All-American High School team than a similar college squad. It's impossible for any group of experts to see every outstanding high school player in the nation.

But Haskill Cohen of the National Basketball Association has taken a nation-wide poll of college and professional coaches and scouts and sportswriters for NEA Service. From his digging, has come a mythical high school squad of the 11 players all agree are the most sought-after in the country by colleges. It follows that the pros will be after them next. Bulova watches will be presented to the 11 NEA stars.

Here are the players the experts—basketball men who must know about these youngsters for a living—have picked as the ones they want the most:

JACK PIRRIE of Maplewood High School, St. Louis, Mo. Pirrie is a 6-5 youngster who may be selected by the NBA's St. Louis Hawks as their territorial draft choice four years from now. Coach Red Holzman of the Hawks says, "Pirrie has all the moves for NBA ball right now. After four years of college, he can't miss making it big."

NOLDEN GENTRY of West Rockford High School, Rockford, Ill. Gentry is 6-7 and was selected as the best player in the state last year. A high jumper, he is an outstanding rebounder.

JACK MORELAND of Minden, La. High School. Moreland, 6-7, his big boosters in Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and Ken Loeffler of Texas A. and M. As a pivot man, Moreland averages 60 per cent.

FRED LA COUR of St. Ignatius High School, San Francisco, Calif. The 6-7 youngster is regarded as the best prep school player in coast history.

OSCAR ROBERTSON of Crispus Attucks High School, Indianapolis, Ind. The smallest man on the first five, Robertson, at 6-4, is one of the deadliest shooters in the sport. He scored 62 points in one game this season.

On the second unit, Cohen's poll places Gary Kesler, 6-8, of Wilshire, O., High. He has a 35 point average and is murder on the boards. With him are such as Horace Walker of Chester, Pa., High, a 6-3 rebounding demon.

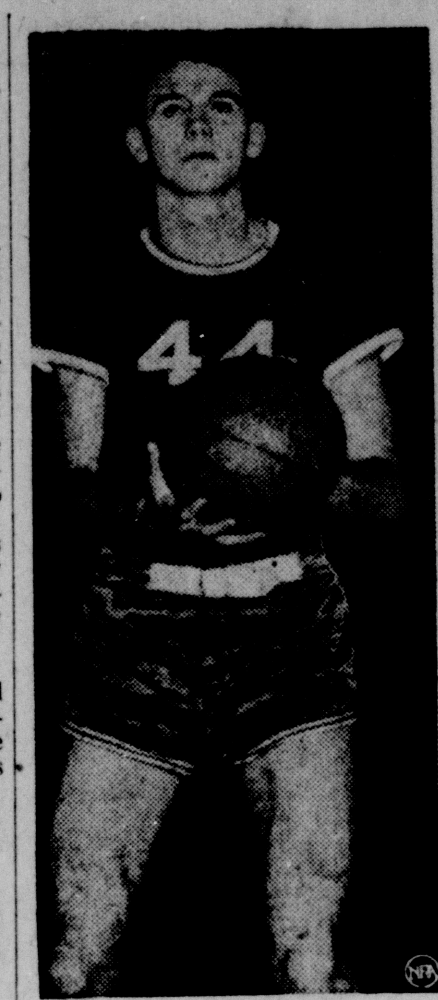

Also on the second team is Frank Radovich, 6-8 shotmaker from Hammond, Ind., High. He has scored 1,000 points in the last two years. With him is Jim McNamara of St. Agnes High in New York City. The smallest man on the squad at a mere 6-1 McNamara is the only player in New York history to score over 2,000 points in a career.

Then there's Walt Mangham, 6-3, of New Castle, Pa., High. Mangham set a Pennsylvania high jumping record of six feet, six and three-quarter inches.

Votes forced Cohen to add Bob Wilkinson as a sixth man on the second team. A 6-1 La Porte, Ind., High ace, he has a 33.2 league average.

The honorable mention list includes: Corky Withrow, Central City, Ky.; George Ramming, Union Hill High School, Union City, N. J.; Albert Ellison, Linden, Tenn.; Dennis Price, Norman, Okla.; Earl Nan, Mt. Pleasant, Ia.; Bobby Freeman, Oxford, Ala.; Bobby Neale, Phoenix Union, Phoenix, Ariz.; Wayne Yates, North Little Rock, Ark.; Dennis Boone, Manuel of Denver, Colo.; Mike Di Napoli, Hillhouse, New Haven, Conn.; Mel Peterson, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Charles Chevalier, Charlestown, Mass.

Also, Al Butler, Rochester East, Rochester, N. Y.; Tom Stith, St. Francis Prep of New York; Ron Johnson, New Prague, Minn.; Earl Irvine, Lincoln of Seattle, Wash.; Jim Altenhofen, Portland Central Catholic, Portland, Ore.; John Frazier, St. John's, Washington, D. ## Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

Brrr. It's mighty uncomfortably cold these days. But it's summer for a couple of Saline county boys.

Don Stout of Harrisburg and Fred Williams of Carrier Mills are reporting for spring training with professional baseball organizations this week.

Stout left Saturday for Albany, Ga., and was scheduled to start work Monday. He is a pitcher, under contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, and his contract is assigned to one of the Cards' Class C farm teams.

Williams left today for Lakeland, Fla., to report to Tigertown, the Detroit Tigers' training center for rookies. Williams is an infielder and his contract has been assigned to Jamestown, N. Y., in Class D ball.

For the past four years I watched the Carrier Mills high school basketball team play ball, both at home and away and during that time have seen Oliver Rollins score in double figures many times.

Have commented time-after-time that he was one of, if not the finest, under-the-basket shots I have had the opportunity to see.

And now I find that all this time I was watching someone else. At least it seems that way.

The annual All-Star squad as selected by The Chicago Daily News was announced Saturday. Rollins didn't make any of the first four teams, but was in the special mention group at center.

In the general story on the all-star selections the following was said of Rollins: "A 'new Robin Freeman' may come out of southern Illinois this winter. He's Oliver Rollins, a 6-1 jump shot specialist from Little Carrier Mills."

"Ollie wrecked scoring records, making nearly all his baskets on a shot from 15 to 20 feet out, much like the one with which Freeman broke Big 10 marks this winter."

That's what it said. But that's not the Rollins I saw. He broke scoring records all right, but from in close, not 20 feet out. Rollins could hit fairly good from outside, but he was terrific "in under."

The Daily News all-star first team was composed of Nolden Gentry, Rockford West; Manny Jackson, Edwardsville; Ken Anderson, Moline; Tom Adams, Washington; Al Gosnell, Lawrenceville.

Southern Illinois boys getting mentioned in the selections—Jim Dorris of Centralia, second team; Ed Perry, Salem; Governor Vaughn, Edwardsville; Russ Martin, Carbondale, third team; Don McGentha, Pinckneyville, fourth team.

In the special mention group were Rollins, Harold Welch, Centralia; Jarrell Graham, Mt. Vernon.

Among the southern Illinois players in the honorable mention list were Don Neal, Mt. Vernon; Ron Brown, Carbondale; Attucks; Bob Taylor, Metropolis; Jack Nolen, Shawneetown; Roger Sloan, McLeansboro; Leon Hall, McLeansboro; Francis Florian, West Frankfort.

Pro Playoff Series Deadlocked

By United Press
Home team victories left both semifinal playoff series in the National Basketball Assn. deadlocked today with the deciding games scheduled Wednesday.

The Syracuse Nationals almost blew an 11-point lead Monday night before defeating the Boston Celtics, 101-98, at Syracuse, N. Y., to tie the eastern semifinals at one victory apiece. The tie-breaker will be played Wednesday night in Boston.

Minneapolis rolled easily to a 123-75 triumph over the St. Louis Hawks at Minneapolis to tie the western semifinals at one win each, and this will be settled in Minneapolis Wednesday.

Cousy had 28 points for Boston and Johnny Kerr 23 for the Nats. The Lakers staged a brilliant shooting exhibition in which all 10 Lakers players scored in double figures, topped by Slater Martin's 19 points.

Zack Malkov, Wrestler on Program Here Saturday, is All-Around Athlete

Zack Malkov, one of the wrestlers slated to appear on the Lions club-sponsored wrestling program at Davenport gym, Harrisburg, Saturday night, is an all-round athlete.

Variety is the credo of Malkov. He was a baseball, basketball and football star at Lane Tech high school in Chicago. He also had a yen to swim and golf. When he could find a spare moment, he'd lift weights and wrestle.

Ed "Strangler" Lewis, passing through Chicago one day, spotted the boy and took him on as a sparring partner. Malkov travelled with Lewis for a couple of years as a trainer, examining the mat world and decided to make it a career. There was good money to be made on power and science.

During World War II Malkov was a Chief Petty Officer in the Navy and spent 10 months in the Pacific theater instructing GIs in the art of self defense.

Malkov is busy in the wrestling business, appearing in midwestern rings an average of three times a week and features a full-nelson

Larsen, Mantle Lead Yankees in 11-1 Victory Over Milwaukee Braves

By United Press
The New York Yankees are lorded it over the Grapefruit league today and they're liable to be doing the same thing to the American league this summer if Don Larsen and Mickey Mantle continue their spring paces.

Larsen, who's turned in his joke book this spring in favor of coach Jim Turner's black book on the hitters, hurled five brilliant innings in Monday's 11-1 rout of the Milwaukee Braves while Mantle waded into the Yankees' 18-hit attack with three hits in four tries.

Larsen, who yielded only one hit Monday, now has pitched eight scoreless innings this spring while Mantle is batting .480 with 12 hits in 25 trips to the plate.

As a result, the Yankees have taken over the Grapefruit league lead with a record of eight triumphs and only two defeats.

The Yankees were able to take over the Citrus league lead when the Chicago Cubs rallied for six runs in the ninth inning to snap the Cleveland Indians' seven-game winning spurt with a 9-5 verdict.

The Cubs were held to one hit—a three-run homer by Ernie Banks—for eight innings by Bob Feller.

Inside Practice By HTHS Track, Baseball Teams

HTHS track and baseball team aspirants have been practicing inside Davenport gym the past week and will start training outside just as soon as the weather permits.

Lawrence Caluffetti, athletic director, revealed today.

The track squad will get outside before the baseball aggregation, Caluffetti said. The thinclads may get out in the next day or two but the baseball players will have to wait a few days longer, for better weather and a drier diamond.

Track team will be in charge of Ben Chamness, who was head coach of the Bull Pup football and basketball teams this year. Caluffetti will have charge of the baseball team and will assist Chamness some in track.

It will be very little, if any practice for the baseball team before the first game, which is scheduled to be held March 27 at Galatia.

Danville Mayor, Chanule Commander Feud Over Corruption Charges

DANVILLE, Ill. — The mayor of Danville and the commander of the Danville Air Force Base feuded today over whether the town's bawdy houses are corrupting the general's men.

Mayor Gith N. Hicks called Brig. Gen. A. M. Minton a "publicity seeking, swivel-chair general."

"You look after your camp, general, and we will look after our city," Hicks said in an open letter.

Minton retorted that eight of his airmen had come down with venereal disease after visits to nine brothels in Danville.

He called for an open conference to map plans for protecting his men.

"It is the public responsibility as well as mine to be concerned with the welfare of the 17-20 year old airmen in my command," he said.

The feud boiled up while Hicks was on a visit in Georgia. He returned to find that Minton had called in Sheriff William C. Hendrickson and given him a list of alleged bawdy houses in this city of 38,000 persons, located 40 miles from Chanute.

Hendrickson said he is investigating and believes a vice syndicate is "bringing in 15 and 16 year old girls to Danville."

But the mayor protested "Danville is a good town to live in. Let he who is without sin cast the first stone."

"Your conduct leads me to believe that your honor in this matter is at a new low," the boiling-mad mayor told the general. "Our city and every city has its problems with promiscuous men and women—in all recorded history military installations have usually made such problems worse."

He added that Danville citizens "pay tremendous taxes to keep people like you in a job" and said the general should have got his facts straight "before your publicity boys start writing releases about our town."

Minton protested that he hadn't issued any press releases. He said he had talked over the matter with the acting mayor in Hicks' absence and had suggested a meeting to "see if we can't correct some of the situations that are leading to trouble for our airmen."

Now, the general said, he wants that meeting to be public. Afterward he will decide whether to place Danville off limits to Chanute airmen.

Stress Area Assets, Gov. Stratton Says

risburg attended, spoke for this city.

After telling of the city's location, its railroad and highway facilities, Williams told of the 16,000 square feet factory building here that is 90 per cent complete and is but 300 feet from a railroad siding and federal highway.

Pottery Presented to Governor

He told of the new lake here which gives the city five years of water without rain and the filtration plant addition now being constructed that will step up the water capacity 50 per cent.

He told of a million and a half dollars being spent here on schools and churches the past two years.

Ernie Webster spoke for Eldorado, telling of its transportation facilities, of 7,000,000 cubic feet of cheap natural gas per day being available, of its organized industrial set-up with committees and boards functioning, and of the community art center now in effect with pottery being made.

"We hope soon to be selling the pottery commercially," he stated.

At the conclusion of his remarks he presented Gov. Stratton with a sample of the pottery.

Morris P. Hill, president of the Carrier Mills Lions club, told of his city, with its transportation facilities and its bordering on the fruit belt and national forest, of its coal fields and its abundance of "country style" labor.

He reported Carrier Mills is now building a community park and has a good fire department with a new truck to be delivered soon.

Other Towns Represented

Other towns reporting before Gov. Stratton spoke were Benton, Belleville, Du Quoin, Rosiclare, Sparta, Pinckneyville, Cairo, Lawrenceville, Kimmunity, Carbondale, Metropolis, Fairfield, Baudette, Anna, Ava, Flora, Vandalia, Marissa, Tilden, Mounds, Cobden, Marion, Carlyle, New Athens, Lebanon, Vienna, West Frankfort, Mt. Vernon, Murphysboro, Johnston City, Norris City and McLeansboro. Three or four towns were heard from after the governor spoke.

Eldorado had the biggest delegation, nearly 100. Cobden was next with around 40.

State legislators from the districts which include Saline county were present as follows to hear the state program regarding southern Illinois: Senator Glen O. Jones and Representatives Paul Powell and Gordon Kerr.

He told of the new lake here which gives the city five years of water without rain and the filtration plant addition now being constructed that will step up the water capacity 50 per cent.

He told of a million and a half dollars being spent here on schools and churches the past two years.

Ernie Webster spoke for Eldorado, telling of its transportation facilities, of 7,000,000 cubic feet of cheap natural gas per day being available, of its organized industrial set-up with committees and boards functioning, and of the community art center now in effect with pottery being made.

"We hope soon to be selling the pottery commercially," he stated.

At the conclusion of his remarks he presented Gov. Stratton with a sample of the pottery.

Morris P. Hill, president of the Carrier Mills Lions club, told of his city, with its transportation facilities and its bordering on the fruit belt and national forest, of its coal fields and its abundance of "country style" labor.

He reported Carrier Mills is now building a community park and has a good fire department with a new truck to be delivered soon.

Other Towns Represented

Other towns reporting before Gov. Stratton spoke were Benton, Belleville, Du Quoin, Rosiclare, Sparta, Pinckneyville, Cairo, Lawrenceville, Kimmunity, Carbondale, Metropolis, Fairfield, Baudette, Anna, Ava, Flora, Vandalia, Marissa, Tilden, Mounds, Cobden, Marion, Carlyle, New Athens, Lebanon, Vienna, West Frankfort, Mt. ## Worker Killed In 72-Foot Fall At Joppa Plant

William Varner Knight, 35-year-old construction worker from Evansville, Ind., was killed yesterday in a 72-foot fall while working at the Electric Energy, Inc., steam power plant at Joppa.

Knight plunged head first from a scaffolding to a concrete base. He suffered a fractured skull, a broken neck and fractures to both arms and legs.

Knight was an employee of the A. & M. Construction Co. of Chicago and had been working at the plant since last October. The plant supplies power to the atomic energy plant across the Ohio river in Kentucky.

At the time of the accident Knight was doing insulating work at the plant and was standing on a scaffold waiting for supplies to be lifted to him.

He is survived by a son and daughter at Evansville.

Knowland Predicts Vote of Farm Bill

rigid price supports at 90 per cent of parity for corn, cotton, peanuts, rice and wheat.

House farm leaders said they would send the two versions of farm legislation to a House-Senate conference committee late this week or next after the staff of the House Agriculture Committee has made a detailed study of the Senate version.

The conference committee will have the difficult job of trying to iron out House and Senate differences over the legislation and also of clarifying some of the provisions in the much-amended Senate bill.

Senate Democrats were defeated, 54-41, 10 days ago in their attempt to restore 90 per cent supports on corn, cotton, peanuts, and millable wheat. But Monday night the Senate voted 50-44 for a Democratic proposal designed to increase minimum price supports this year to 85 per cent of parity for corn and wheat and to 90 per cent for cotton.

"Through the Back Door"

The Democratic strategem calls for mandatory "set-asides" of a minimum of 750 million bushels of wheat, 250 million bushels of corn and 7,500,000 million bales of cotton from government surpluses of the crops.

Surpluses are a major factor in determining the level of price supports under the flexible prop system. The more surplus, the lower the price support. But the set-asides are not counted a surplus in figuring price supports.

"We got what we wanted through the back door," Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee told reporters.

The gadget was the same one Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson used to get flexible price supports in 1954.

Senate bill and administration price supports for the three crops stack up like this:

How They Stack Up

Corn: Senate bill—85 per cent parity—$1.55 per bushel. Administration—81 per cent parity—$1.40 per bushel.

Cotton: Senate bill—90 per cent parity—31.7 cents per pound. Administration—86 per cent parity—30 cents per pound.

Wheat: Senate bill—85 per cent parity—$2.13 per bushel. Administration—76 per cent parity—$1.81 per bushel.

However, the Democratic triumph may be short-lived. Republican farm leaders in the Senate predicted Mr. Eisenhower will veto the measure if it goes to the White House in anything like its present form.

Doesn't Like Some Provisions

Even before the "set-aside" provision was put into the bill, the administration objected to the measure's dual parity provision, the increase in dairy price supports and the two-price plans for rice and wheat.

The dual parity provision will result in higher support prices dollarwise for corn, cotton, peanuts and wheat than under the administration-favored modern parity formula which was to have been effective this year.

The increase in dairy price supports would be from the present $3.15 to $3.25 per hundred pounds of manufacturing milk.

Under the wheat program, farmers would get 100 per cent of parity for that part of their crop eaten by humans in this country. This would not go into effect until next year, however, and then only if approved by two-thirds of wheat farmers in a referendum and at the discretion of Benson.

Hold Last Rites For Fred Allen

NEW YORK — The great, the has-beens and those who never were said solemn farewells today to the man who was known as the sharpest wit and the softest touch on Broadway.

He was born John Francis Sullivan. He died as Fred Allen.

More than 800 persons, among them celebrities and the curious, heard a high requiem Mass read for the sad-eyed comedian at St. Malachy's Roman Catholic Church, where Allen married Portland Hoffa in 1927.

Among them were such friends as TV stars Steve Allen, Herb Shriner and Robert Q. Lewis. Also in attendance were John Daly and Bennett Cerf, Allen's fellow performers on CBS-TV "What's My Line."

Herman Wouk, best-selling novelist who once worked as a gag-writer for Allen, attended with his wife. So did Peter Donald and Korny Delmar, the "Ajax Cassidy" and "Senator Claghorn" of Allen's old radio show.

Allen, who died last Saturday night while walking his dog, was buried at Gate of Heaven Cemetery in Mount Pleasant, N. Y., immediately after the service. The ceremony was private.

Allen's widow was dry-eyed and composed throughout the service. She arrived with comedian Jack Haley, an old friend and fellow vaudeville actor, and followed the casket as it was carried to the altar.

The board voted 4-3 at its February 20 meeting against renewing Houghton's contract, maintaining he had not properly handled school discipline and lacked administrative training.

The petitions were signed by 400 students and 63 former students.

Houghton has been connected with the school for 17 years, starting as athletic director.

Hoover Urges Congress Approval Of Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON — Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. urged reluctant congressmen today to approve President Eisenhower's $4,360,000,000 foreign aid bill in full.

He called it a vital weapon to strengthen U. S. Allies and head off a vigorous new Russian offensive to dominate the world through political and economic subversion.

Hoover testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee as the lead-off administration witness in support of Mr. Eisenhower's aid bill. It provides for a $2,200,000,000 increase in foreign aid appropriations in the 1957 fiscal year, but actual aid spending would be only about $200,000,000 more than the current fiscal year.

The administration appeared to have a hard uphill fight. Most lawmakers were asking but one question: How deeply should the bill be cut?

The message had scarcely reached Congress before Committee Chairman James P. Richards (D. SC) exploded: "That's too much."

Sentence Youths For Kidnaping, Criminal Assault

ST. LOUIS — Three 16-year-old St. Louis county boys faced reformatory terms today following their guilty pleas to charges growing out of the kidnaping and criminal assault of a 14-year-old University City girl.

Joseph Hastings Jr. and George Lawson were sentenced to 10 years in the Alcoa Intermediate Reformatory on guilty pleas to reduced charges of assault with intent to criminally assault the girl.

The third youth, Acil McGee, who recently was acquitted on the assault charge, was sentenced to five years after pleading guilty to the kidnaping charge.

Hastings and Lawson also drew five year sentences for kidnaping. The sentences will run concurrently with the 10-year term.

The three youths abducted the 14-year-old girl on Dec. 7, forced her to drink a quantity of whiskey and allegedly criminally assaulted her before putting her out of their car in a vacant lot. McGee was called an accomplice in that he had only driven the car.

Speculator Begins Prison Term, Leaves Multi-Million-Dollar Snarl

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Landon V. Butler, socialite speculator, left a multi-million-dollar snarl for the courts today and began a three to five year prison term for selling $3,164,488 worth of non-existent soybeans.

Butler, who once made one million dollars in one day of cotton trading, pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. His sentence was fixed by a jury.

Butler was accused of obtaining money from the Continental Grain

Co. of New York last spring for 1,299,839 bushels of soybeans represented as being stored at the Alabama Grain & Elevator Co., Mobile, Ala.

"Soon thereafter," the state charged, "the Continental company ascertained there were no soybeans."

Butler went into bankruptcy, touching off a welter of litigation over his deals involving millions. Continental was joined by other litigants in suing Butler, his wife and former associates.

Leval & Co., also of New York, and Continental together accused Butler of selling them more than four million dollars' worth of imaginary soybeans.

A trustee for the Alabama grain firm which Butler had controlled filed a five-million-dollar suit.

Butler, 41, began his fantastic career with a job as squire (clerk) in a cotton office here only about 10 years ago. He became a multi-millionaire before plunging into bankruptcy.

Thinking It Over—For Lent

By Robert Dieffenbacher, D.D.
Written for NEA Service

Grumble, grumble, grumble — all day long we hear people grumbling about health, delays, weather, neighbors, government, taxes and scores of other unrelated things. It is wonderful to live in a nation where we can gripe without having some secret police reporting on our attitudes and viewpoints. The trouble is that we complain so much that we overlook the satisfactions for which we should be thankful.

Actually we have better health than any people in history. Life expectancy has been increased by many years. Suffering has been reduced.

Delays on trains, planes, subways and buses are comparatively brief. Many times they are in the interest of safety. We are used to such good schedules that the occasional delay annoys us.

We probably disturb our neighbors as much as they annoy us. If they were forced to live by our standards, we should have to forfeit our freedom in the interest of uniformity and we should not like that.

"Dear Lord," we ought to pray, "We thank You for the way of life we have and for all the good things we now enjoy. Help us to fit into the pattern of life without so much grumbling."

The loon has a cry which sounds like insane laughter, hence the expression "crazy as a loon."

Nehru to Visit U. S. Next July

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India today announced he will meet with President Eisenhower here next July.

The prime minister's announcement was released simultaneously by the White House here and in New Delhi.

President Eisenhower earlier this month invited Nehru to visit the United States in a move aimed at improving deteriorating U. S.-Indian relations.

The White House said Nehru

2 Southern Illinois Men Plead Not Guilty to Swindle

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Two southern Illinois men and a resident of Nashville, Tenn., pleaded innocent Monday in Federal Court to charges of swindling John Engle, Cincinnati, Ohio, out of $5,000.

Entering pleas of innocent and motions to have their cases transferred to Paducah, Ky., for trial were Ralph Lowery Porter, 50, Nashville, Robert Bork, 32, Du Quoin, Ill., and Albert Ransom, 44, Cairo, Ill.

They are charged with offering to sell Engle eight $1,000 bills for $5,000 at Paducah last June 27. Engle said the men told him they would be unable to spend the large bills. Engle said he handed over the $5,000 and received an envelope containing fake money.

Bond for the three was continued to April 16 on the change of venue motion.

plans to arrive in Washington July 6 or 7 and remain until July 10 or 11. He will come here immediately after the Commonwealth nations conference in London.

Nehru's acceptance of the President's invitation came only a matter of hours after Nehru made a

TO THE VOTERS OF SALINE COUNTY

In 1953 the State Legislature enacted a law placing the Coroners of the different counties of the state from a fee basis to a full time salary, effective Dec. 1, 1956. This salary is comparable to those paid the other elective officers of the county.

I believe, and I am sure you as voters will agree, that the man elected to this office, in view of the fact that he is paid a full time salary, should devote his entire time to the office.

I have served you this present term in an efficient and conscientious manner and I assure you that if re-elected I will devote my entire time to the duties of the office. I am your candidate and will appreciate your support in the April 10th Republican primary.

SINCERELY,

Outdoor Easter Service Will be Held At Williams Hill

Williams Hill Tower in the Shawnee Forest will again be the scene this year for the outdoor Easter service. This is the 11th annual service sponsored by the American Sunday school Union under the direction of the Rev. James Johnson, field missionary. It will be held Easter Sunday at 3 p. m. Mr. Johnson stated that many people should be able to attend at this hour because it will not conflict with sunrise services or church services.

In past years the services have featured pastors, home and foreign missionaries, business men and chaplains for speakers. Music has been furnished by quartets, radio artists, etc. This year promises to be one of the best services. College young people will witness of the resurrection throughout the entire service as speakers and musicians.

The Forest Rangers and Boy Scouts are cooperating again this year to make the drive and parking enjoyable and easy. There will also be a public address system to enable those to hear who wish to stay in their cars.

THIS is the one that measures BIG—by any yardstick you choose...

BIG in solid pounds and honest inches...

BIG in high-compression horsepower...

BIG, best of all, in the way it makes small money talk.

For, this strapping beauty is the 1956 Buick SPECIAL—biggest package of high-fashion luxury and high-stepping performance ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

What that boils down to is just this:

You can call this brawny Buick your own for only a few dollars more than the price of the well-known smaller cars—for even less than some models of those very same cars. And the price we proudly print here backs up that statement.

But low price, alone, doesn't explain why Buick outsells every other car in America except the two well-known smaller ones.

The big reason, you will find, is because

Buick gives you so much more pure automobile for the money.

You'll find it in the bigger thrill you get from commanding the agile might of Buick's big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine.

You'll find it in the greater smoothness of Buick's superb new ride—in the utter serenity of Buick's new handling ease—in the bigger satisfaction of Buick size and roominess and steadiness and styling.

You'll find it, too, in the fact that here you can get the matchless smoothness of the world's most modern transmission. For, at your option, you can also have the new double-action take-off—and the extra gas-saving mileage—of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

So, how about it? Will you come in real soon? We've got the facts and the figures—and the car—to prove everything we've told you—waiting for you.

†New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

What's NEW in the '56 BUICK SPECIAL?

NEW 322-cubic-inch V8 engine of 8.9 to 1 compression ratio—highest ever for this bedrock-priced Series

NEW Extra-Massive Frame and Precision-Balanced Chassis, engineered all new from front to rear for extra-rugged roadability

NEW Deep-Oil-Cushioned Luxury Ride—with all-coil springing and true torque-tube drive

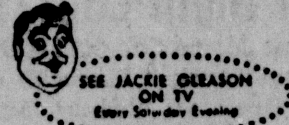

NEW Sweep-Ahead Styling—with choice of Fashion Color Harmony inside and out

NEW Smoother-Action Brakes with Center-Groove Linings and Suspended Pedal

NEW Stepped-Up Gas Mileage

NEW Interlocking Safety Latches and Safety-Aim Head Lamps
